Foreword

Thomas Jefferson, founder of the University of Virginia, author of the Declaration of Independence, and third President of the United States, performed many functions well. A contribution often overlooked but surely no less important is the Honor Code.

When in 1785, the code was first introduced at the University of Virginia, he wrote, "I can assure you that the possession of knowledge - next to 'an honest heart' - is what will, above all things, render you dear to your friends and give you fame . . . Give up money, give up fame, give up science, give up the earth itself and all it contains, rather than do an immoral act . . . 'an honest heart' is the first blessing, a knowing head, the second."

This year the faculty and student body of Altavista High School gave their endorsement to the initiation of an Honor System at our school, placing special emphasis on the moral standards of the individual student.

Each of the 1964 graduates has achieved a firm basis of character derived from school experiences, enabling him to meet realistically and honestly the challenge of living in today's world.

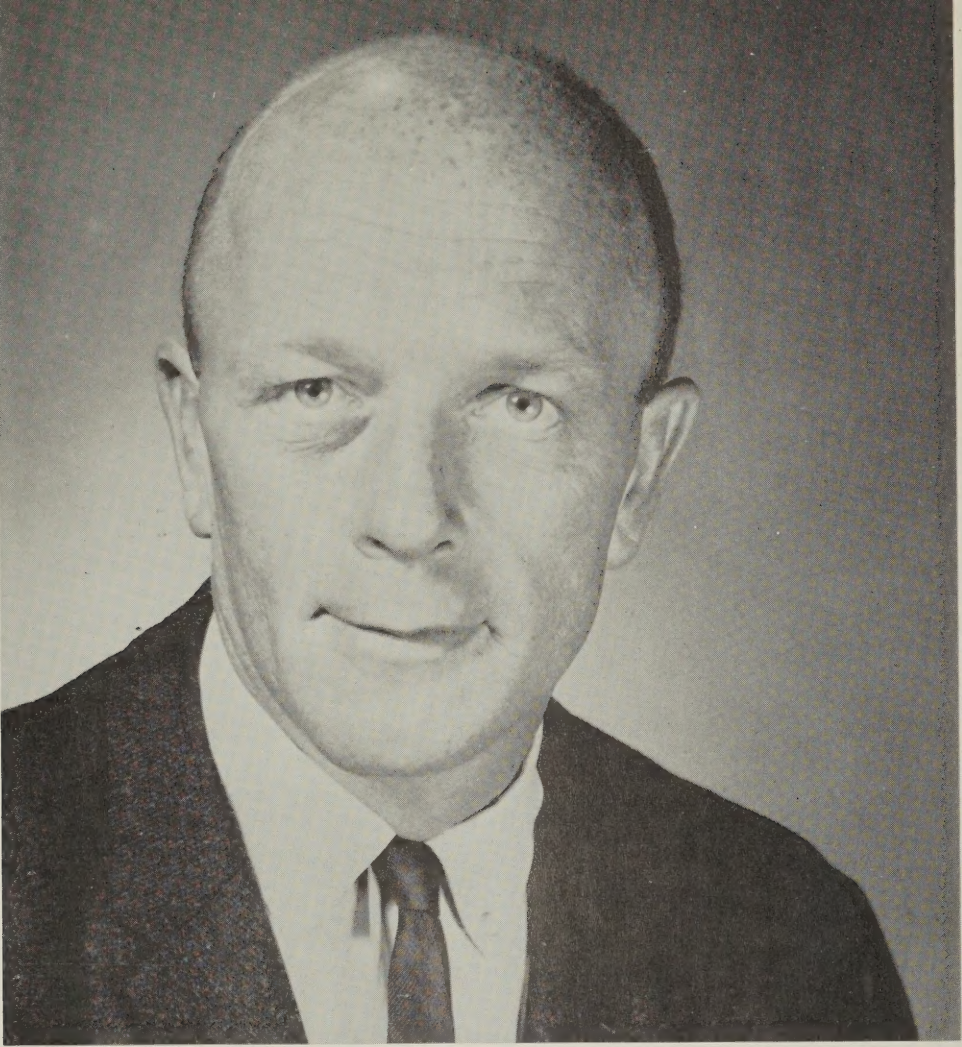

Underclassmen who shall return next year will continue the high principles set forth in the Honor Code and strive for further improvement as the provisions of the Code become more and more identified with our life together at A.H.S.

We, the members of the class of 1964, wish to honor . . .

. . . one who has served Altavista High School as a teacher and football coach for five years. Not only has he enriched our lives through his guidance and instruction in the classroom, but he has taught all of us that sportsmanship and honor come before victory. As public director of recreation during summer months, this competent man has won the respect of the entire community. With pride and gratitude we dedicate the Nuntius to Coach Harold Drumheller, a man who maintains an attitude of dignity and reserve at all times.

"I am indebted to my father for living,
but to my teacher for living well. -"

Senior Class

The Seniors were very busy this year with all the special activities that accompany "Seniorhood." Some of the many activities we enjoyed were receiving our class rings, presenting a Senior Play, and winning first prize for our float in the Football Homecoming Parade. The Senior Banquet, Class Night, and Graduation climaxed our years at Altavista High School.

Await Graduation!

Once upon a time, there was an energetic, hard-working, peppy class called "Junior." It came into the world September 3, 1963. Even in its infant stage, its list of accomplishments was great.

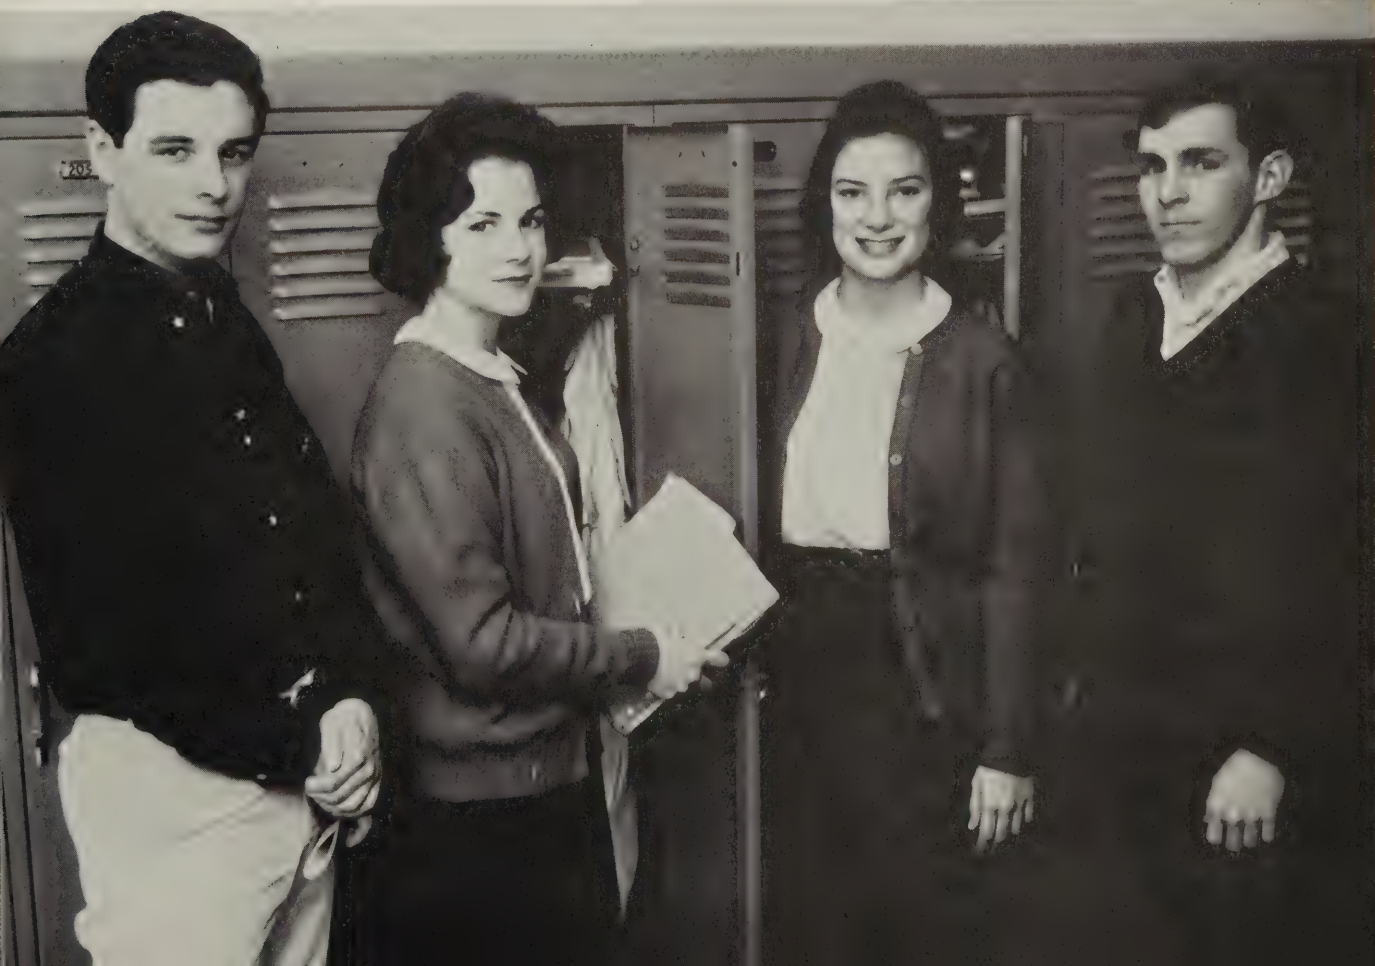

It gave its first dance in October, which was a smashing success. It worked tirelessly for weeks before the Homecoming parade to build a float which floated away with third prize. "Junior" did even better in the Christmas parade, and won second prize for its float, "Winter Wonderland," which it entered for Leggett's Department store.

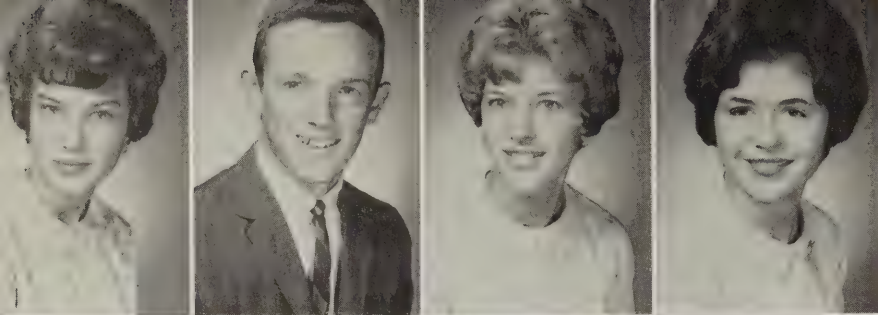

In March, "Junior" produced a play and won renown for its great acting ability. Then, in May, came the highlight of "Junior's" successful year, when it used its creative ability to build the Junior-Senior Prom into a dazzling fantasyland.

Sophomore Class

We, the members of the Sophomore Class, realize that now is the time to prepare for our future in high school and beyond graduation. By now we are well established in our interests and activities. We know that since we shall be upperclassmen next year, we shall have to accept the responsibilities of leadership.

Our class this year has been engaged in several money-making projects for funds which will come up during our high school lives. During the summer we held a bottle drive. Much work and effort were put into a homecoming float which failed only in giving us financial gains. Selling popcorn, and sponsoring a dance made up for this. Our class, because of its many good workers, is capable of accomplishing many worthwhile things.

The Freshman Class of AHS
 Has been attaining great success.
 In the Sportsmanship Contest, it seems
 We're in first place now, with our screams.
 Good sportsmanship gives us a higher score,
 When the teams are playing out on the floor.
 In football season, too, we see
 A float called "Golden Memory,"
 The result of hard work by our grade,
 We worked night and day to get it made.
 Also the Thanksgiving Dance we gave,
 And made lots of money for us to save.
 Nobody knows what the future will hold,
 But a past we're proud of is what we've told.

"Ideals are the world's masters."

- H. G. Holland

Our Honor System and the Honor Council have in their FIRST year taken upon themselves a heavy responsibility and proven themselves quite capable in their efforts so far. Their purpose is to promote honorable conduct on the part of all students and to protect the school society against dishonorable conduct of any of its members. To accomplish this purpose they have distributed to all the students a statement of violations of the Honor Code and recommendations for proper discipline, along with an Honor Card to be carried by each student at all times. As a reminder, they have put OBSERVE YOUR HONOR CODE posters in every classroom.

Sandra West, Becky Bohannon, Heidi Smith, Phil Lanier; Laddie Lane, Brenda Hughes, Jerry Barbee, and Suzanne English.

OBSERVE YOUR HONOR CODE

Honor Council

Mr. McDearmon, the sponsor, Suzanne English the Chairman, and Phil Lanier, the 12th grade representatives; Sandra West, 10th grade; Becky Bohannon, 12th grade; Heidi Smith and Brenda Hughes 11th grade; Jerry Barbee, 9th grade; and Laddie Lane, 8th grade.

College Day

Each year, so that the upper-classmen might become acquainted with the colleges and armed services, from which they will probably choose, and to make prominent the necessity of choosing early, our school plays host to a variety of college and armed services representatives.

Susan Minter, Anne Leighton Yeatts, Kay Tucker, Miss Waller, Becky Bohannon, Harriet Sheilds, Heidi Smith, Brenda Mason, an interested mother, and Dianne Hargis are being instructed about Radford College; just one of the many colleges that were represented at College Day.

Louis Bryant, Ronnie Gill, Robert Tunkel, and Mike Weeks show avid interest in the Southern Californian Delegate's information. Good luck, boys!

The Demonstration of one of the cosmetologists pleases Janet Tucker, Dale Eades, and Martha Dean Farmer as they ask pertinent questions about a possible future vocation.

The school monogram was conceived to recognize those people who excel academically, musically, athletically, or who perform a welcomed service to the school. Ours is a letter, unique in design and exceptional in purpose, to be worn with pride and dignity. Those who received the Altavista High School Monogram in 1963 were:

The study of different elements and putting this knowledge into practice in the Chemistry Laboratory.

An interest in Math and a flare for art may be combined in this class. Figures of articles, such as the polyhedron, are frequently required.

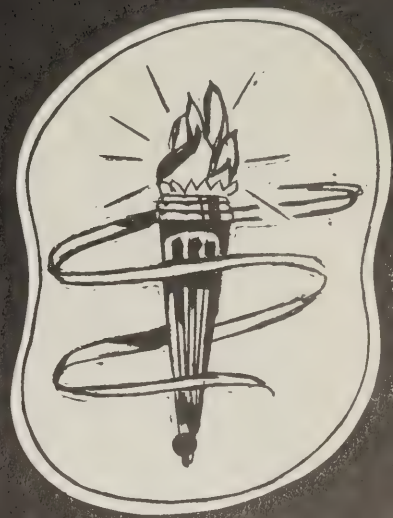

Mrs. Rountrey explains the intricate structure of a poem - one of the studies in Creative Writing.

The detailed study of plants and animals in Biology Class captivates students. The most indescribable part of this course is the actual dissection of the animals studied.

The Writing Class has been asked to provide skits for school functions, such as the PTA pageant presented in the autumn.

"Honor is not a matter of any man's calling merely,
but rather of his own actions in it."

Colonel Staff

"In these times we fight for ideas, and newspapers are our fortresses."

Each month staff members work conscientiously to publish a newspaper which contains news concerning the students of Altavista High School. The "Colonel" circulates among approximately 300 students and occasionally has been sent to the students' homes. Staff members, attending workshops in Richmond at the beginning of the year, received helpful ideas.

Student Co-operative Association

The S.C.A. has completed many worthwhile projects. We supplied each homeroom with a college dictionary. We set up a committee to clean the curtains and we purchased chair trucks for the gym. We also put a system of loudspeakers in the gym. In the Spring we sponsored Honor Week and a week campaigning for better treatment of school property. We have been responsible for the blessing, pronounced over the loudspeaker during lunch. We also continued activity ticket sales and the awarding of the academic letter.

The Beta Club had as its main project for '63-'64, putting modern novels in the school library. In the fall the club enjoyed a successful bottle drive and on Valentine's Day sponsored the Sweetheart Dance in the school gym. We sent delegates to the State Beta Club Convention in Roanoke in March. The club represented the school on "Klass-room Kwiz," a television quiz show, in April.

Our club held a very successful dance which provided funds for club activities. We sent delegates, Jeannie Robbins, Dianne Hargis, and Deborah Mason, to the state convention at Richmond. Miss Wallace, our sponsor, accompanied the group. Other projects included visits to local colleges, taking charge of assembly one month, and student aids to teachers.

The F. H. A. is designed to promote an enjoyable school, home, and community life for its members.

This year our main project has been action for citizenship, with emphasis on safety. This proved to be very successful. The members of the organization have enjoyed such activities as the Fall and Spring Rallies, a Christmas tea, the volleyball tournament and a Mother-Daughter Banquet.

One of the projects of the F. H. A. this year was studying Home Nursing.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

Several attempts brought forth a very successful 1963-64 session for the Senior Tri-Hi-Y. In December we sponsored the annual toy dance with proceeds going to needy children, and we presented the Christmas assembly. In April we sent three delegates to the MGA convention in Richmond. In the Spring we sold candy which brought great profits. The month of May was the highlight of our year, when we attended our Tri-Hi-Y banquet to end our session.

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend high standards of Christian character throughout the home, school, and community. This purpose was carried out well this year as the Junior Tri-Hi-Y, a newly formed club composed of eighth and ninth graders assisted the Senior Tri-Hi-Y in presenting a Christmas assembly and in giving a Christmas Toy Dance. Toys for underprivileged children were the price of admission. The sponsors of this club are Mrs. Nancy Hicks, Miss Kathleen Burnette, Rev. James Clements, and Rev. Norman Bennett.

The Spanish Club helps us learn the Spanish way of life as well as the language. Our club grows each year in numbers and in interest. The Club started the year with approximately forty enthusiastic members. Our activities included singing Christmas carols for the Gonzalez family. We also fixed a stocking for their son, Raulito. A Spanish fiesta was held this year.

Mrs. Ofelia Gonzalez visited the Spanish classes regularly to help verbally.

Being able to express one's self has become essential in the world today. The Forensics Club helps open the area of self-expression to students through poetry, public speaking, prose, and debate. The success of the Club has been shown in district and state competition, and in the praise received by members.

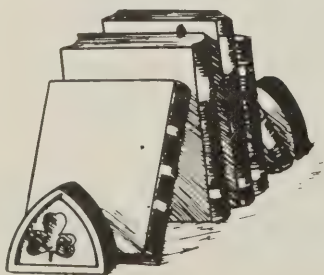

"A great library contains the diary of the human race - The great consulting room of a wise man is a library."

The Altavista High School Library Assistants, LA for short, is composed of only five students this year. Our helping hand lessens the routine load of the librarian and tends to balance her work scales by adding more time for her professional services.

The outstanding event of our year was a trip to Ruzicka Bookbinding Plant in Greensboro, North Carolina, and dinner at S&W Restaurant. A picnic at Mrs. Ramsey's home was also fun.

At the beginning of this year our Industrial Arts Club drew up and adopted by-laws and a constitution. Film strips and lectures by Mr. Bernhardt have increased our interest in, and knowledge of, industry. Several field trips and plant trips were scheduled prior to the end of school. These trips included a tour of the Babcock-Wilcock plant, General Electric plant, Weyerhaeuser Company Plant and Klopman Mills plant.

Science Club

The Science Club has been a very interesting and worthwhile club this year. We went to the planetarium at the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill and viewed a program on satellites and outer space. Many interesting programs were given to the club by prominent people of this area. In return we gave science programs to different classes in the elementary school.

This year the Monogram Club has done much to advance sports and sportsmanship in our school. As a money-raising project the club sponsored a very successful "powder-puff" football game, and the basketball Homecoming Dance. A banquet brought to a close another successful year for the Monogram Club.

The Varsity Club contributes to the excitement of the "powder-puff" football game by cheering for their favorite girl.

OFFICERS

President - Phil Lanier

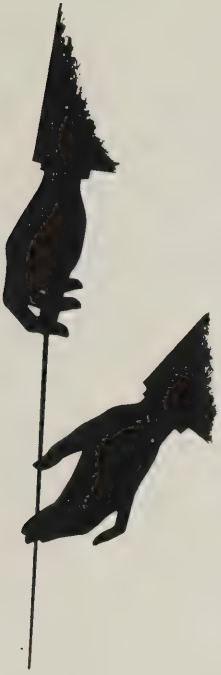

Vice-President - Dan Justice

Secretary-Treasurer - Palmer Harris

The Varsity Club, under the guiding light of its president, undertook many activities this year. The members enjoyed watching films of athletic contests. One of the highlights of the year was our Club's supplying cheerleaders for the girls' "powder-puff" football game. The Club took a Thanksgiving Day trip to see a football game between William and Mary and the University of Richmond

"Leaves may seem frivolous; they even dance,
Yet they too are a part of the mighty oak."

The duties of a King and Queen are such pleasant ones. There's Dancing (along with the court) and . . . need we say more.

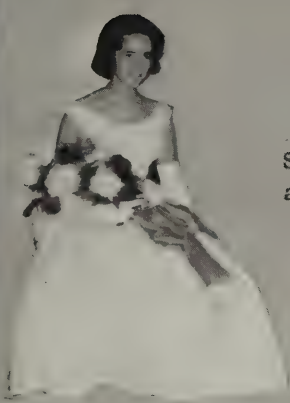

Here's Homecoming

King Phil Lanier and Queen Susan Oakes reigned over the beautiful Homecoming Dance, "Misty." Here they were officially crowned 'mid decorations of blue, white, and pink. A pink cloud, on which the Misty Angel sat, hung over the silver lake in the middle of the gym. Behind the throne of the King and Queen was another pink cloud; a beautiful realm for the royal couple and their court.

Floats 'n Fires

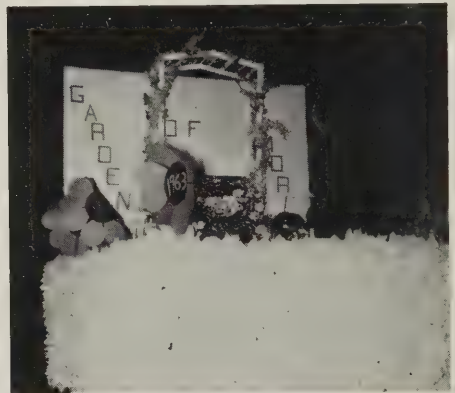

Lynda Smith, Junior cheerleader, yells at the Bon-fire Pep Rally as other members of the squad, S. Frazier, L. Barrett, and H. Arthur, perform the skit.

Senior string of Volkswagens, "Train of Memories," took first place in the parade.

Halftime float with the Court: 8th - R. Harris, D. Hendricks; 9th - B. English, S. Frazier; 10th - N. Price, H. Arthur; 11th - P. Frazier, P. Creasy; 12th - S. English, R. Shreve; Queen - S. Oakes; Crownbearers - J. Smith, B. Crouch.

Eighth grade float, "Garden of Memories," received second prize. Parade theme was "Moments to Remember."

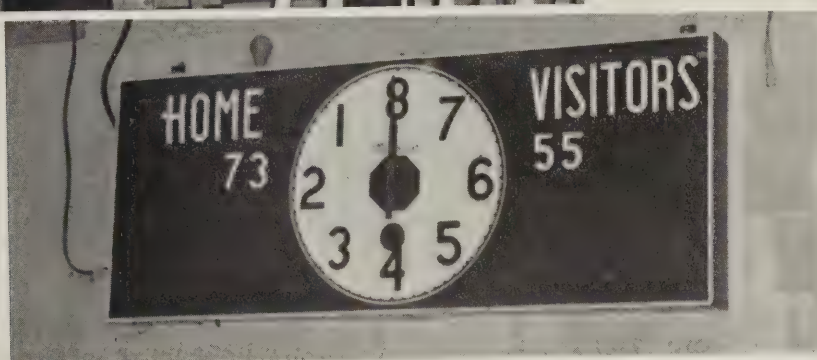

Junior class's "Memory Scrapbook," viewed by R. Cox and J. Lane got third place.

"When the Deep Purple Falls . . ."

"It was hard work," sigh basketball cheerleaders, L-R: B. Hughes, P. Patterson, L. Arthur, and N. Price. But the end result was the lovely "Purple Pit," decorated in shades of lavender. The dance theme, "Deep Purple," was also carried out in the orchid given the Queen. A screen of silver formed the background for the King's and Queen's thrones.

The scoreboard tells of a Colonel victory over Gretna in the Basketball Homecoming game.

King Terry Akers and Queen Susan Oakes are crowned by Coaches Thompson and Wright.
